NEXT ROUND

The winner of the Penn (9-0) vs. Portage (0-9) game plays the winner of the Lake Central (3-6) at Crown Point (9-0) game in the Sectional Championship on Friday, Nov. 7.

If Penn beats Portage, the Kingsmen will host the Sectional Championship Game against either Crown Point or Lake Central.

The Sectional 1 Champion would take on the Sectional 2 Champion in the Regional. Sectional 2 includes Carroll (6-3) at Elkhart (6-3) and Fort Wayne Snider (3-6) at Fort Wayne Northrop (7-2).

HOISTING THE HARDWARE

Penn boasts 26 Sectional Championships in Football. The Kingsmen last claimed a Sectional Championship in 2023 (Sectional 2).

Portage has won eight Sectional Championships, the last in 2003.

Penn has won five State Championships (1983, 1995, 1996, 1997, 2000).

Portage has won one State Championship (1977).

HERNANDEZ DOUBLE TROUBLE FOR OPPONENTS

Penn Senior Colden Hernandez (5-foot-11, 179-pound Senior) is one of the top impact players on both sides of the ball in Indiana.

On defense, Hernandez has four interceptions (include a Pick-6) and has broken up six passes.

On offense, Hernandez has scored seven touchdowns and gained 279 yards. He averages 6.5 yards a carry.

Hernandez has also been a force on special teams. He has blocked two kicks, and returns punts and kickoffs.

HALL RACKING UP AMAZING NUMBERS

Penn quarterback Landon Hall, a 6-4, 203 Junior, has turned the passing pocket into a launching pad for Penn's Gold Rush offense.

The Power 4 college prospect is bringing the heat, connecting on 79-of-105 passes for a dazzling 75.2 percent completion percentage. He has fired off 18 touchdown strikes and has only been intercepted twice. His quarterback rating is an astronomical 148.

Hall has passed for 1,559 yards this season, usually only playing in the first half of games due to the Kingsmen winning by an average of 33.0 points a game.

HURLEY CATCHES ON

All-State candidate Brayson Hurley is a prime target in Penn's aerial attack.

A 6-4, 218 Junior, Hurley has hauled in 36 catches for 719 yards and six touchdowns. His longest touchdown was an 82-yard run after a catch from quarterback Landon Hall. Hurley averages 79.89 receiving yards a game.

Hurley has also contributed to the Kingsmen special teams, averaging 32.67 yards a kickoff. He has one kickoff return for a touchdown (89 yards).

Hurley also stepped up to be the long snapper on field-goal and point-after touchdown kicks.

FREEMAN PICKS IVY LEAGUE SCHOOL FOR WRESTLING

Penn High School's Vinny Freeman, one of the state's top wrestlers, will continue his education and wrestling career at Cornell University.

Freeman, a three-time state qualifier and regional champion, claimed that Cornell's unique blend of prestigious academics and Division I wrestling was a perfect fit for him.

"I chose Cornell since it tests me in all aspects," Freeman said. "I yearned for a university where I could challenge myself in the classroom and on the mat. Everything seemed right — the coaches, the culture, the academics — everything.

Freeman said the Penn Wrestling program helped him become the athlete and person he is today, so much of his success comes from there.

"Penn Wrestling gave me ground-breaking instruction on how to remain disciplined, and how to lead," Freeman said. "Every day, Coach Harper and the rest of the staff pushed me, believing in me. Without them, I would not be committing to Cornell."

Penn head coach Harper said Freeman's dedication is inspiring.

"Vinny is the kind of athlete that earns everything he gets," Harper said. "He is among the most focused competitors I have coached, a fantastic teammate, and a student of the sport. Cornell is receiving someone especially unique.

Freeman leaves behind a legacy of toughness and leadership at Penn that will inspire upcoming Kingsmen wrestlers for years to come as he gets ready to enroll in one of the elite programs in the Ivy League.

Freeman, a linebacker for the Penn Football team, also serves as a team captain for the Kingsmen on the gridiron.

FOUR-SPORT STAR

Christian Bonner, a 6-1, 240 Senior Defensive Lineman, is a four-sport star for the Kingsmen.

Bonner is one of leaders of Penn's Wild Bunch defense with five tackles for loss, four QB pressures, two quarterback sacks and a pass deflection that led to a Pick-6.

He is also a key player on the Kingsmen Boys Basketball Team.

In the Spring, Bonner competes for the Boys Track & Field Team, and he helped lead the Boys Volleyball Team to a Sectional Championship in its first season.

DEFENSIVE FORCE

Penn's defensive front of Quinn Watson, Kendal Schaffer, John White and Christian Bonner has set a dominant tone for the Kingsmen this season.

The Kingsmen front four has combined for 10 quarterback sacks, 16 QB pressures, 14 tackles for loss and forced two fumbles. The Kingsmen front even came up with a Pick-6 when Bonner deflected a pass that White hauled in and raced 54 yards for the score.

WALLIS ATTRACTING D-1 ATTENTION

Linebacker Noah Wallis has attracted plenty of attention from college coaches.

The 6-1, 205 Sophomore has already had recruiting visits to Georgia, Notre Dame, Indiana and Michigan State.

Wallis has made an impact as a Sophomore. He leads the team with 43 primary tackles, and leads the Wild Bunch with 58 tackles overall.

Wallis has four tackles for loss, five tackles for loss, four quarterback sacks, forced two fumbles and returned one fumble for a touchdown. He also has one blocked punt.

CLEARING THE WAY

The Gold Rush Offense has piled up 3,203 yards of total offense in nine games (355.9 yards of total offense a game). The Kingsmen have only allowed 13 sacks in 398 plays.

The offensive line has been clutch in key plays, leading the way to 23 third-down conversions (41 percent) and five fourth-down conversions (50 percent).
