Human GPS: Hall's passes find their destination

Penn quarterback Landon Hall is one of the nation's top passers for completion percentage.

Hall, a 6-foot-4, 205-pound uncommitted Senior, is 165-of-208 passing for a completion percentage of .793 percent.

According to the National Federation of State High School Associations (NFHS), the national high school record for single-season completion percentage is 81.5 percent, established by Kane Archer of Greenwood, Arkansas, in 2024. Archer completed 247 of 303 passes. The NFHS record requires a minimum of 275 attempts.

Hall has passed for 49 touchdowns and only has two interceptions. He has an astronomical 155.8 quarterback rating (158.3 is the best possible rating).

Hall owns the Penn single-season passing record with 3,070 yards this season. He set the previous best for passing yards in a season in 2025 with 2,336 yards.

Record chase

Landon Hall is zeroing in on the Penn career passing yardage record. In just two seasons, Hall has passed for 5,406 yards. He needs 84 yards passing to surpass the program record of 5,489 set by Nick Keim (2004-2006).

Grand Theft Football

Defensive back Ethan Horner has been playing Grand Theft Football in Penn's three playoff games.

Horner has five interceptions in Penn's three playoff games, including three thefts in the 44-27 victory against Crown Point. Horner had a 54-yard Pick-6 against Elkhart. He also has a fumble recovery in the playoffs.

Horner has six interceptions overall in Penn's 12 games.

Hurley, Needham committed to DI programs

Penn wide receiver Brayson Hurley and center A.J. Needham are Class of 2027 commits to Division I programs.

Hurley, 6-4, 220, is committed to Miami of Ohio.

Needham, 6-5, 310, is committed to Missouri State.

Hurley has 1,160 yards on 53 catches, with 17 touchdowns.

Needham anchors an offensive line that has cleared the way for 5,086 yards in 12 games. The Kingsmen average 47.8 points a game.

Biernacki commits to I.U. Baseball

Penn wide receiver Mason Biernacki is an Indiana University Baseball Class of 2028 commit. The 6-0, 175 Junior also shines in football with 49 catches for 878 yards and 17 touchdowns.

Biernacki, an outfielder, started for Penn as a Freshman and a Sophomore.

Last season as a Sophomore, the Kingsmen right-handed hitter slashed opposing pitching for a .404 batting average. Biernacki had a .542 slugging percentage and an OPS of 1.194. He also drove in 25 runs and had 23 stolen bases. Biernacki hit .484 with runners in scoring position.

Biernacki also pitched 12.1 innings for the Kingsmen. He was 2-1 with three saves and 1.14 earned-run average. He had a 1.098 WHIP.

Wallis a dual-threat

Noah Wallis, a 6-foot-1, 215-pound uncommitted Junior linebacker, has scored an offensive touchdown and a defensive touchdown this season.

Wallis carried the ball for the first time of the season against Elkhart on Oct. 2. He had five carries for 31 yards and scored a touchdown. Wallis scored on a 25-yard Pick-6 against Valparaiso in the Sectional opener on Oct. 30.

Dominating defense

Penn's defense has only allowed 93 points through 12 games, an average of 7.8 points a game.

Defensive end Cooper Reihl, a 6-2, 200-pound Junior, leads the Kingsmen with 21 tackles for loss, 10 quarterback sacks and 12 QB pressures. Reihl has forced three fumbles and recovered two fumbles.

Linebacker Noah Wallis leads Penn with 53 primary tackles and 22 assists. Wallis has a Pick-6, 13 tackles for loss and three quarterback sacks. He has also recovered three fumbles.

Multi-talented

Penn running backs Chase Buckwheat and Tate Clark have been threats running the ball and catching the ball.

Buckwheat averages 6.5 yards a carry, rushing for 475 yards on 73 carries. He has scored nine touchdowns. Buckwheat boasts 106 yards receiving on six catches for three touchdowns.

Clark has 387 yards on 56 carries for an average of 6.9 yards a carry. He has seven rushing touchdowns. Clark has 205 yards receiving on 16 catches and two touchdowns.

Lasting Legacy

Penn boasts one of Indiana's most accomplished high school football legacies.

The Kingsmen have won five state championships, 12 semi-state championships, 19 regional championships and 28 sectional championships.

Penn claimed its 42 Northern Indiana Conference championship this season with a perfect 7-0 conference record. The Kingsmen own two consecutive NIC titles and five of the last season league trophies have ended up in Kingsmen hands.

Conference of Champions

The Northern Indiana Conference is celebrating its 100th anniversary in the 2026-2027 school year. Current NIC members own 10 state championships in Football (Penn 5, Marian 3, South Bend Washington 1, South Bend St. Joseph 1).
